A G A C A G A G C
Everything in the mirror

A G A C D E D C
Takes place in the past

A G A C A G A G C
Trying to sum up the now is always

A G A C D E D C
looking back

A G A C A G A G C
Electric notions move as

A G A C D E D C
Fast as they can

A G A C A G A G C
The hardware constrains

A G A C D E D C
What the soft can have

A D E G A C D C A
Your favorite star in the night sky

A G E A C D A C
Could have died long ago and in a brilliant lie

A D E G A C D C A
Still shines with life to the naked eye

A G E A C D A C
And if that's the case is it still alive

(CHORUS)

D C A G A C
Even your hand right in front of your face is always
C D A G A C
Slightly behind your moving brain
D C A G A C
Even your hand right in front of your face is always
C D A G A C
Slightly behind your moving brain

A G A C A G A G C
Each moment converges

A G A C D E D C
Then it slips away

A G A C A G A G C
Every one

A G A C D E D C
dead this day

A G A C A G A G C
Can’t run in place or see the
A G A C D E D C
source of light

A G A C A G A G C
But keep staring straight and

A G A C D E D C
marking time

A D E G A C D C A
Your favorite star in the night sky

A G E A C D A C
Could have died long ago and in a brilliant lie

A D E G A C D C A
Still shines with life to the naked eye

A G E A C D A C
And if that’s the case is it still alive. x3
