Interdimensional Pansexual

Wouldn't it be just so convenient
If you don't know just what you'll be meeting
If any old thing or any being
Might stir up that saucy feeling
Enthusiastic consent is all I need
As long as its obtained properly
Physical attraction guaranteed
As long as we connect emotionally
Conceived from notions
Across a galaxy of oceans
By hive mind microbial trees
Dreamed up beings born to be free
Doomed to roam across dimensions
Seeking whatever suits their intentions
Attracted to things you can only conceive.

There are two rules to being an inter dimensional pansexual traveler:
Rule number one: can they consent?
Are they of sound mind, sound body,
Are they old enough, wise enough, powerful enough to consent?
Rule number two: do they consent?
Do they give fantastic, enthusiastic, orgasmic consent?
Can they consent, do they consent?
Can they consent, do they consent?
Can they consent, do they consent?
Can they consent, do they consent?
Can they consent, do they consent?
Can they consent, do they consent?
